We will only retain your data for as long as is necessary for us to provide our Services to you and any period as required for regulatory reasons.

11.6. Marketing Information: If you have agreed to receive marketing information and until you ask us to stop sending you marketing information we may use your personal data including your contact details, your application details (but not banking details) and details of the services we provide you with and how you use them, to inform you about other similar products and Services that may be of interest to you; and if and to the extent that you have given us permission to do so, we may contact you by telephone (including automated calls), post, email and other electronic messages such as short text, video and picture messaging, and fax, with information, news, events and seminars on our investment and financial services and those of other selected partners.

12. CLIENT MONEY [Cash Margin]

12.1. Client Money Status: You agree and acknowledge that, in light of your classification as a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty, in the absence of express agreement between us, full title to and ownership of all Margin in the form of cash (“Cash Margin”) which has been transferred by you to us under a “Title Transfer Collateral Agreement” (“TTCA”) or otherwise passed to us for the purpose of securing or otherwise covering your present or future, actual or contingent or prospective obligations, shall, not constitute and shall not at any time be deemed to constitute client money for purposes of the FCA Rules. Your funds will not be segregated in furtherance of FCA Client Money Rules. You will rank as a general creditor of EC Markets.

12.2. Treatment of Cash Margin: We will treat all Cash Margin transferred by you to us (including money transferred from sums previously held by us on deposit for you) pursuant to Clause

12.1 above, as having been transferred to us for the purpose of securing or covering your present, future, actual, contingent or prospective obligations. Accordingly, where you transfer Cash Margin to us, we will thereby acquire full ownership of it and we will not hold such money in accordance with the Client Money Rules. You will not have any interest in or proprietary claim over Cash Margin transferred to us and we can deal with it as our own. We will transfer an equivalent amount of Cash Margin back to you where, in our reasonable discretion, we consider that it is no longer necessary for us to retain the money you have paid to us. In determining the amount of Cash Margin you will be required to pay to us pursuant to this clause and whether it is necessary to retain such Cash Margin, we may apply such a methodology (including your trading history, judgements as to the future movement of markets and value) as we consider appropriate, consistent with this Agreement and applicable law and regulations.

12.3. Request to Opt In. You are entitled under the FCA Rules to request at any time and from time to time, that your Cash Margin be held or received by us pursuant to the FCA Client Money Rules rather than pursuant to a TTCA. We will notify you in writing whether or not we agree to such request, but you understand and agree that we are under no obligation to agree to your request. Any agreement by us (whether pursuant to your request or otherwise) to hold money pursuant to the FCA Client Money Rules (as applicable) will in all cases be subject to you and us agreeing (i) such amendments to this Agreement as we (acting in our absolute discretion) consider necessary to give effect to such an arrangement (ii) the date from which we will hold your money pursuant to the Client Money Rules. Should you request us to segregate your funds, and we agree to do so, then FCA Client Money Rules will apply.

12.4. Segregation of client money: Where we agree to hold money transferred to us by you as “client money”, we shall treat this money as defined by the FCA Rules in respect of client money. Accordingly, subject to these Terms, we will segregate upon your written request and our written consent, your money from ours in a designated account pursuant to the FCA Rules. This account is held by us as trustee and the bank or other holder is not entitled to combine it with any other account or to exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim against money in that account in respect of any sum we owe the bank.

12.5. Discretionary Opt-In. Provided that Clause 12.3 does not apply, where we hold your money under a TTCA, if we consider that we hold sufficient Margin to meet all our obligations to facilitate your trades or contingent liabilities, we may (but shall not be obliged), in our absolute discretion place any excess Margin in an account with the benefit of the protections under the Client Money Rules ("Temporarily Protected Margin"). You accept that such accommodation is made to you in order to provide you additional protection where possible and hereby consent unconditionally that we may return any or all Temporarily Protected Margin to an unsegregated account, if we in our absolute discretion deem it necessary to meet any Margin requirements. Upon your request, we will explain our methodology to you.

12.6. Passing money to third parties: We may need to pass Cash Margin received from you to a third party (e.g. a credit institution, market, intermediate broker, OTC counterparty or clearing house) to hold or control in Instruction to effect any current or future Transactions through or with that person or to satisfy your obligation to provide collateral (e.g. initial or variation Margin requirement(s)) in respect of any current or future Transactions. We have no responsibility for any acts or omissions of any third party to whom we pass money received from you. The third party to whom we pass Cash Margin may hold it in an omnibus account and it may not be possible to separate it from our money, or the third party's money. In the event of the insolvency or any other analogous proceedings in relation to that third party, we will only have an unsecured claim against the third party on behalf of you and our other clients, and you will be exposed to the risk that the money received by us from the third party is insufficient to satisfy the claims of you and all other clients with claims in respect of the relevant account.

12.7. Overseas banks, intermediate broker, settlement agent or OTC counterparty: We may hold client money on your behalf outside the EEA. The legal and regulatory regime applying to any such bank or person will be different from that of the United Kingdom and in the event of the insolvency or any other analogous proceedings in relation to that bank or person, your money may be treated differently from the treatment which would apply if the money was held with a bank in an account in the United Kingdom. We will not be liable for the insolvency, acts or omissions of any third party referred to in this sub-clause.

12.8. Unclaimed client money: You agree that we may cease to treat as client money, and accordingly release from the client bank accounts any unclaimed client money balances, above the de minimis amount as defined by the FCA Rules, the entire balance in your Margin account where there has been no movement on the balance for such period as may be specified by the relevant FCA Rules (notwithstanding any payments or receipts of charges, interest or similar items) and despite taking reasonable steps we have been unable to return the client money to you. We undertake to make good any valid claim by you against any released balances.

12.9. Interest: We will not pay interest to you on any of your money that we hold and by entering into this Agreement you acknowledge that you waive any entitlement to interest on such money under the FCA rules or otherwise.

13. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

You represent, warrant and undertake to us that, both at the date of this Agreement and at the time of any Transaction we may enter into with you that:
