
Website Cookie Policy

BACKGROUND:

EC Markets Group Ltd use cookies as part of a normal business procedure to track patterns of behaviour of visitors to our site. More information about how we use cookies and how you can change your settings to switch them off are set out below. Please note however that you may not be able to use all the features of our website if cookies are disabled.

Cookies are small pieces of text stored on your computer when you visit a website. Cookies do not harm your computer or device.

We use the information gathered by cookies to optimise our website and improve your experience by tailoring this website and our advertising to your preferences.

Almost every site on the internet uses cookies. Cookies let users navigate around sites and (where appropriate) let us tailor the content to fit the needs of the site's visitors. Without cookies enabled we can't guarantee that the website and your experience of it are as we intended it to be.

EC Markets Group Ltd does not use cookies to collect your personal information and they can't be used to identify you. Unless you login to 'client portal' area or provide personal data through your use of our website, no personal information is collected.

If you wish to know more about cookies, please consult the help menu on your web browser or visit independent information providers such as www.allaboutcookies.org.

If you have any questions regarding our cookie or privacy & security, please email support@ecmarkets.co.uk.

1. Cookies Classification

Cookies can be classified into persistent or session and first party or third party, explained below.

Session cookies are created temporarily when you visit a website, for example to remember your information entered in a form when you navigating to different pages. They do not contain any personal information about you and are deleted when you leave the website.

Persistent cookies (also called a stored or permanent cookies) are used to collect information such as web surfing behaviour or preferences for specific website. These cookies are not deleted when you leave the website but expire after a set period.

First or third-party cookies these describe whether the cookies are issued by the website that you are currently visiting (first party) or by a different website (third party).

2. EC Markets Group Ltd use of cookies.

EC Markets Group Ltd utilises first party cookies.

First party Cookie – Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to collect information about visitor behaviour on the EC Markets Group Ltd website. Google Analytics stores information about what pages you visit, how long you are on the site, how you got here and what you click on. This Analytics data is collected via a JavaScript tag in the pages of our site and is not tied to personally identifiable information.

EC Markets Group Ltd does not use any cookies to store personal data.

To find out more about Google's position on privacy visit

<https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245?hl=en-GB>

Visitors may choose to opt-out of Google Analytics tracking with the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on.

3. EC Markets Group Ltd policy on cookies.

Our policy is to use cookies to improve the way we do business with you or when they are essential to the way the website works.

The type of activities we may use cookies for:

- To store details that help to manage accounts and policies online, such as user login details.
- Find out how visitors use our website, how often they visit, what pages they go to, and what links they click on, so that we can improve our website.
- Help us to provide relevant information, such as details of products, services and other information that you may be interested in.

EC Markets Group Ltd does not use any cookies to store any personal data or other data that could be used to identify you as an individual.

At EC Markets Group Ltd we are committed to protecting your privacy and security and we are committed to ensure that we maintain compliance with the Cookie law.

For more information, please visit the Information Commissioner's website – <https://ico.org.uk>.

4. How to change cookie settings.

You can always manage your cookies by changing your settings within the web browser you are using to visit our site.